New York, March 19,—Money on call easy at 11@21 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 44.5. Sterling exchange unchanged. Bonds-Government bonds were dull and heavy. State bonds were very quiet and steady. Railroad bonds were dull. Total sales, $1,496,000. Prices are about evenly divided be-tween advances and declines for small Stocks-Interest in stocks con tinued to center in the coalers, the trading in which amounted to 52 per cent, of the total transactions. ing most of the forenoon the market was inclined to be weak, and be-tween 11 and 12 o'clock the lowest prices of the day were generally made. Later it recovered, and with occasional slight reactions continued strong until after 2 o'clock. In the last hour a heavy and very dull tone prevalles, and it closed irregular, but n most cases weak. Closing prices are generally small fractions higher than yesterday. The sales were 307,380 shares. The fluctuations were within a narrow range except for the coal stocks. Lackawanna opened at 124; and declined to 125; Rumors for which subsequent investigation could find no foundation, to the effect that a settlement of the differences be tween the Beading syndicate and Mr. Gowen was almost certain, brough about a rally, in which Lackawann about a rally, in which Lackawanni sold as high an 1261, closing at 1261, 2 gain of 13. Delaware and Hudson is up 21 at 101 after selling between 98 and 102, and Reading gained 11 at 254 after selling at 261 forsey Central gained only at 504. St. Pac was conspicuous for its firmness on a moderate business for that stock and closed with ness for that stock, and closed with gain of 1 at 911, after selling at 92 The rest of the list is up general from a to 1, but except St. Paul an Lake Shore the trading was extreme limited, the four coal stocks and the per cent of the day's business. Lou-ville and Nashville was conspicuo for its weakness, closing with a loss at 40 on reports showing that lette second week of March is earning same week last year. The total sales of stocks to-day were 307,379 shares, including Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, 93,830, Delaware and Hudson, 12,680; Eric, 10,625; Lake Shore, 24,700; Louisville and Nashville, 400; Northwestern, 6800; New Jersey Central, 19,550; Pacific Mail, 6315; Reading, 34,450; St. Paul, 42,135; Union Pacific, 6200;

Chicago, ILL., March 10.-On 'Chang's to-day the bears had everything their own way; early public cales were heavy, and the private messages that were received later depressed to a still further degree. The decline in New York also helped the downward tendency. Wheat opened at 84% and, with very few exceptions, broke to 132c, just ic under yest st-day's closing. During this time the market was hopelessly weak. The I o'clock closing was decressed and bearish, with prices a shade above the lowest points. Corn was pulled down by the surrounding careals and so'd freely at a decline of ic, dropping from 391c to 383c. There was a fair trade only. Flour quiet and un-changed.
